NEWSLETTER | 21 October 2019 | VOLUME 16

FROM THE HEAD

Dear Parents

Our memorable and moving Valedictory Ceremony took place on Friday 18 October where we bade a fond and formal farewell to the Class of 2019 – our third ever group of Matric students. They began their College adventure in 2015 when the school was still known as Umhlanga College. The High School building (today our Creative & Performing Arts Centre) had just been completed. The High School had only occupied the top level of this building the previous year so there was much excitement in 2015 when the school occupied the newly completed downstairs classrooms and Science laboratories. There were two Grade 8 classes that year with Mr Edmonds and Mrs Sayer as registration teachers. The “Culture of Commitment” prevailed and the students soon learnt that at this school, small as it was, you played every sport and you were guaranteed to be selected for the ‘A’ team! But it also meant that everyone turned up again and again even in the face of considerable opposition.

In my Valedictory speech I paid tribute to all those Matric students who, despite the demands of their final academic year, have led the school by example by fulfilling their various sporting and cultural responsibilities. In addition I thanked each and every member of the Class of 2019 for dedicating their talents and their time to serving on the various leadership portfolios. Many have led with conviction and compassion - never seeking to exercise power or privilege. In so doing they have lived out our motto “We Shall Give Back.” They have made an indelible impact on our growing College and we are grateful.

I encourage them to use the greatest freedom that they have worked so hard to attain - and the advantage that an independent education has afforded them - and that is the freedom of choice – the choice to be part of the problem or the solution; the choice to have a positive or negative impact on the world around them and the choice to make either good or bad decisions. I wish for them to make good decisions. As Dr Seuss wrote: “Life is too short to wake up in the morning with regrets. So, love the people who treat you right, forgive the ones who don’t and believe that everything happens for a reason. If you get the chance, take it. If it changes your life, let it. Nobody said it would be easy, they just promised it would be worth it.”

As we bid farewell to the two classes of Grade 12 students, I am proud to announce that for the first time in our College’s history we will boast four Grade 8 and four Grade 9 classes next year. Ongoing interest in our College has seen a large number of students applying for places in Grade 10 in particular next year whilst the few available places in Grade 9 next year are filling up fast. Our challenge, as we grow bigger and stronger, is to retain that “family feel” in which every student is known and everyone’s contribution is acknowledged. We are determined to remain more like a second home than a school.

We wish the Reddam House Umhlanga Class of 2019 every success as they prepare to write the final IEB NSC examinations and we are confident that they will maintain the high academic standards set by the Matric classes of 2017 and 2018.

Matric Farewell Tea & Dress-Up Day

Thursday 17 October was a special day in the College as our Matric class of 2019 celebrated their last, official, school day. The Grade 12s had to dress up as something that they, as a child, thought they would want to be when they grew up. After having a photograph with the whole school, the morning ended with a tea with their teachers.

Grade 12 Leadership Portfolios 2020

We have thanked our present Matrics for the manner in which they have given back to their school this year by embracing our servant leadership model and for undertaking numerous initiatives and projects. And so it is time to introduce our leaders of 2020: The Grade 11's participated in a Leadership Camp in August and then took part in a follow-up leadership day at school, where they explored their own personal values and then used this exercise to determine what portfolios would be needed to support these values. Once they had decided on the portfolios, and subscribed themselves to their chosen one, they elected their Chairpersons. Although they will be formally inducted in Term 1 next year, and will receive their badges at this induction, we would like to introduce them now:

As is Reddam custom, Matrics select representatives for various high profile functions that take place during the course of the year. For 2020, it has been decided that two students will represent the Matrics on a permanent basis.

These two students were democratically elected by the Grade 11's. The students were requested to elect the two individuals who they felt were best placed to represent them in 2020, irrespective of gender, but it so happens that it is a boy and a girl who were selected. The Matric representatives of 2020 are Georgia Mackay and Luke Gardiner.

LO Island Day: Dealing with Addiction

On break-up day last term, we held an LO Island Day focussing on Addiction. Our students engaged in two sessions run by Project Exodus (Anthem Recovery) and Careline. With the expertise of Project Exodus, students were informed on the various forms of substance abuse and addiction. The residents of Careline shared their own stories of struggle, strength and courage and in so doing, provided a warning to our students of the devastating consequence of addiction.

Matric Art Exhibition

The 2019 Matric Art exhibition was opened by Ana De Vlieg, a prominent Durban artist, writer, and Art teacher. Her speech focused on the issues that the Grade 12 class had to solve in the completion of their final examination works. They were given the theme: Liminal Spaces as their examination topic. A liminal space is, in essence, the space that exists between what was and what is yet to come. The Matric Art students focused on climate change; school stress; inequality; sleep paralysis; drug abuse and many other issues that plague our contemporary society.
